

Creative Leadership teams with Train to Gain

With Train to Gain funding you can enlist Creative Leadership's services for free, or for a fraction of the cost.

Tough economic times can mean cutting back just at a time that your business needs it the most. To ensure you get the right development, keep valued staff and prepare for the upturn, we've teamed with Train to Gain to provide cost-effective and creative solutions.

How do you qualify?

- ★ You should be either a business owner, director or manager who's looking for development for yourself and/or your team
- ★ Your business will employ between 5 and 250 people
- ★ You've not recently taken advantage of any similar funding (since 2006).

You could receive

- ★ A free grant of £500 towards a Creative Leadership programme to help you address those areas we identify for you to focus on.
- ★ A possible further £500 training grant for yourself and/or your team provided you match £ for £.

It's been proven that this funding has had a major impact on improving productivity, profitability and increasing sales for those businesses that have taken part.

How to get the funding
